

APSA MENA Workshop

Political Science in the Arab Middle East and North Africa

Alumni at the MESA Annual Meeting in Washington, DC – November 22–25, 2014

This year, four MENA Workshop alumni (including participants and co-leaders) have been selected to present their research and/or serve as chair or discussant for a panel at the Middle East Studies Association's Annual Meeting in Washington, DC (www.mesa.arizona.edu). See below for more information on these presentations:

Darwich, May (University of Edinburgh/German Institute of Global and Area Studies (GIGA))

[P3714] Authoritarian Statebuilding in the Arab World -- Presenter

Sunday, 11/23/14 8:30am

Kayyali, Abdul-Wahab (George Washington University)

[P3918] Parliaments and Power in the Middle East – Presenter

Monday, 11/24/14 11:00am

Jamal, Amaney A. (Princeton University)

[P3893] Public Opinion in the Middle East – Discussant

Tuesday, 11/25/14 11:00am

Lawson, Fred H. (Mills College)

[P3825] Understanding Syria's Political, Social and Strategic \(Dis\)Order: An Inter-disciplinary Reflection from the Social Sciences – Chair; Discussant

Tuesday, 11/25/14 1:30pm