Define “public policymaking” in your own words.

Identify the steps of policy creation. What actors are involved in each of the steps?

How does a policy emerge? How does a policy disappear? What explains policy change?

What are some ways in which one assesses the extent to which a policy is “good” or “bad”? 