

Interview Questions: NING (Fall 2009)

1. Tell me about yourself.
2. If you could choose to live anywhere in the nation, where would you live?
3. What was the last interesting book you read?
4. If you had the power to pass or repeal (eliminate) just one law in your city, state, or federally, what would you do?
5. If you had to name one really important political event in your lifetime what would it be and why?
6. If you were to offer President Obama 1-minute of advice, what would you say?
7. What is your earliest recollection of a political event or discussing politics with your family or friends?
8. Have you ever worked on a campaign before or done some kind of volunteer work? What was it like?
9. What's your main source for news?
10. Whom do you admire and why?

Brief Instructions:

1. Your professor will provide you with the contact information (email) for your interview partner.
2. Send your interview partner a request to "meet" or exchange information. This can be done via email, but ideally, you should try to connect via phone or live chat.
3. Write your answers to the questions provided above and submit by the due date (TBA by instructor). The questions are also posted on NING.
4. Please notify your professor if you attempt to contact your partner without success. You will be reassigned to a new partner.